

MAN SLASHED IN FIGHT IN SALOON

John Smith of Genesee Cut Across Chest by Camel Dennis Following Argument.

HIS ASSAILANT IS BEING HELD

Victim is Able to Leave St. Anthony's Hospital This Morning and Goes to His Home in Genesee.

John Smith of Genesee was taken to St. Anthony's hospital after a fight and subsequent cutting scrape staged in the saloon of H. C. Luchmann, 217 Seventh street, near closing time last night. Camel Dennis, his assailant, is confined in the city jail.

The two started an argument over some trivial matter. Words grew warmer and soon bats were put to play in the argument. Dennis suddenly whipped out a knife with a long blade and stabbed wildly at Smith, cutting him across the chest. At this time officers stepped in and halted the affair. A hurry call was sent to the police station and Dennis was held until police arrived.

Smith was rushed to the hospital where Dr. Joseph DeSilva dressed his injuries. Dr. DeSilva stated today that Smith would recover. Had the knife penetrated one inch deeper one would have proved fatal, said the physician.

Tell Story to Attorney.

The deepest cut is over the heart between the third and fourth ribs.

Smith was able to leave the hospital this morning and conferred with State's Attorney Thompson before leaving his home in Genesee.

YANK WOUNDED IN FRANCE IS DEAD

Is Second Princeton University Student Killed in Action of Front—Another Man Injured.

Princeton, Aug. 8.—John Verplanck Newlin, of Winterton, Pa., an American field service member who was seriously wounded by a shell at his post on Aug. 5, died in a hospital at the front in Aug. 6. Newlin, according to the correspondence of the New York Herald, was a member of section 20 and left Paris less than a month ago. He was a Princeton student and was the second man from that university to be killed in field service within the last week.

The same shell which struck Newlin wounded Julian Brundage L. Allen of New York, the section's leader. The latter is the son of Fredericks Allen.
